

ASSOZ. PROF. DR. THOMAS STÖGGL

Born: 01-05-1977 in Saalfelden/ Austria

Nationality: Austria

Marital status: married

Parents: Christine Stöggel (Teacher secondary school Saalfelden)

Mag. Wolfgang Stöggel (Teacher comprehensive secondary school Saalfelden)

SCHOOL EDUCATION

1983-1987 primary school Saalfelden

1987-1995 comprehensive secondary school HIB Saalfelden

1995-1996 Austrian Army

ACADEMIC CAREER

1996-2001 University Studies of

a) Sports science at the philosophical faculty of the university of Salzburg and

b) mathematics at the faculty of natural sciences of the university of Salzburg

2001 Master degree in both Studies (Diploma Mag. Phil.)

2001-2006 PHD study in the field of Sport science and kinesiology; University of Salzburg (passed with distinction on 21.12.2006)

2004-2012 Member of the Christian Doppler Laboratory "Biomechanics in Skiing"

2006-2007 Practical year as a teacher at the BORG Nonntal in mathematics (7. class, advised by Ms. Weidenholzer) and physical education (5. class, advised by Andreas Oberhauser)

Since 2007 University Assistant at the Department of Sport Science and Kinesiology, University of Salzburg. Post Doc Study

12.4.2011 Habilitation University of Salzburg: Associate Professor: Venia Docendi Training Science and biomechanics

Since 2011: Associate professor at the University of Salzburg- Department of Sport Science and Kinesiology – permanent full position

2011 -2013: Part time employment as a guest researcher at the Midsweden University Östersund (Swedish Winter Sports Research Centre)

FURTHER EDUCATION

1998 Basic trainer at the National Sport Academy (BSPA) of Innsbruck

1999 Special trainer for cross-country skiing at the National Sport Academy (BSPA) Innsbruck